Lemont Township Board Workshop Meeting – May 21, 2019

The Lemont Township Board workshop meeting was called to order by Supervisor Rosendahl at 1115 Warner Avenue, Lemont, at 3:09 p.m.

The Pledge of Allegiance was said and Deputy Clerk Ganta-Rynne took the roll: Gilbertson, Nicklas, Sanderson, Wozniak and Rosendahl-present. Highway Commissioner, Mark Labno, entered the meeting at 3:45 p.m.

Supervisor Rosendahl stated that 2.8% was the cost of living increase and he would like to consider a 5% increase of the total salary from last fiscal year. Supervisor Rosendahl reported that he asked Kathy Henrikson, Debbie Schmitt, and Terri O’Neill Borders about new programs to be considered in the 2019-20 budget. Terri stated that she would like to expand the summer lunch program to include high school students in need. Supervisor Rosendahl also stated that his goal for this meeting is to have the Budget & Appropriation Ordinances passed at the June 11, 2019 meeting.

Line items for General Fund and Road and Bridge were examined and increased or decreased based upon the actual and projected income and expenditures for each.

It was determined, with regard to the expansion of the Community Center, to project $75,000 for Professional service fees and $600,000 for the building addition.

Supervisor adjourned the meeting at 5:10 p.m. Trustees Gilbertson, Nicklas, Wozniak concurred.
